WORK

TYPEFORM : MARCH 2007 - PRESENT

I am currently working as a Graphic Designer in Typeform. I initially acquired the role of production operator and in 2010 I was promoted to Senior Designer and trusted with the management of several high profile accounts. I am currently solely responsible for these accounts. From initial concept, feedback and amends from clients, to final artwork delivery.

My duties involve full layout & design of Lidl newspaper advertisements (National & Northern Ireland) on a weekly basis, magazine design for Social & Personal magazine, brochure/flyer design for BCP Asset Management and a range of work on several other high profile accounts. I also design web banners and animated gifts for the Dalata Hotel Group websites.

I am responsible for the workflow of all colour management practices in relation to newspaper advertisements and perfecting optimum print performance.

I am the acting Production Manager of the studio when management are on leave, and responsible for the training of other members of staff from procedures to implementing guidelines on these accounts.

I work to very tight deadlines on a daily basis to achieve an ultimate goal; customer satisfaction.

IMPRESS DIGITAL : MARCH 2005 - 2007

At Impress Digital I was employed as a Junior Designer. Here, I gained experience working in a fast paced environment whilst adhering to very tight deadlines. My responsibilities included concept and design of advertisements and branding for corporate clients.

LIQUID MEDIA : FEBRUARY 2004 - MARCH 2005

At Liquid Media I was employed as a Junior Designer, shadowing and learning from the Senior Designer.

During my time here I conceptualised and designed the new identity for Liquid Media itself. I was in charge of all outgoing print files and liaising with printers to ensure quality control for our clients. I was also in charge of designing a bi-monthly regional newspaper, including the design of all advertisements that appeared in the publication.
